Great Presenter Series

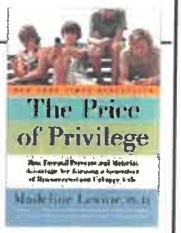
On Thursday, January 7, at 7:30 p.m. Dr. Robert Eyre will give a talk on "What You Need to Know About the Prostate." He will clarify recent information on this subject that has received wide popular coverage and explain about PSA, alternative treatments, and newer treatment modalities. Dr. Eyre is Associate Professor of Surgery (Urology) at Harvard Medical School and Chief of Urology at the Faulkner Hospital and Beth Israel Deaconess/ Needham Hospital.

Filmmaker Judy Faust presents her documentary, "Angels of Austria: The Church that Reached Out to Holocaust Survivors" on International Holocaust Remembrance Day

The film chronicles an Austrian church's attempts to reverse centuries of anti-Semitism in their hometown by inviting Jewish Holocaust survivors formerly of Wiener Neustadt to return for a Week of Reconciliation in 1995. Judy Faust accompanies her mother, Trudy, and together they embark on an emotional roller coaster ride of grief, compassion, and healing. Christians and Jews explore their painful pasts while creating historic milestones they hope will mark an era of friendship and understanding. But how will Judy's mother forgive the descendants of the Third Reich when she hasn't even forgiven herself for not saving her father? Q & A with Judy Faust to follow screening.

January 27 from 7:30 PM - 9:00 PM

WaylandCares Book Group
The first in a series of book groups for parents of "tweens" and teens.



The Price of Privilege by Madeline Levine, Ph.D. will be discussed. This book takes a critical look at one child-rearing myth after another and delves into the real causes of depression, substance abuse, and anxiety disorders in teens from affluent, loving families. The book provides thoughtful and practical advice to enable parents to help their children cultivate an authentic sense of self. January 25 at 7:15 p.m.

New Books

Sometimes we're asked where we keep the new books. For the latest and greatest, head for the Round Room, the rotunda on your right as you enter the Adult section of the library. (That's also where we keep the DVDs.) New Fiction is on your left, Mystery and Science Fiction on your right. In between is New Non-Fiction, shelved in call-number order, lowest to highest, left to right. With the display section on the tables, that's nearly every book we've bought in the last eight or nine months.

Save the Date! Appearance by author Jenna Blum

Ms. Blum's debut novel, Those Who Save Us, was published by Harcourt in 2004. In October 2007 it jumped onto the New York Times Bestseller List and has been there ever since. She is currently working on her second novel, The Stormchasers, forthcoming from Penguin, and teaches novel workshops at Grub Street Writers in Boston.

Monday, February 22, at 7:30 p.m.

Library Mugs

The Friends of the Library are offering very handsome "Wayland Library Mugs" for sale as a fundraiser. Each mug features a wonderful cast image of our historic library building. Come by the main circulation desk to see the mugs displayed. The Friends are selling them at the Wayland Depot and at the circulation desk for $15.

INTERLIBRARY LOAN: HOW IT WORKS

You order a book from another library through the catalog and presto! it shows up a few days later. Nothing to it, right? Actually, though it seems like magic, there's a lot of physical labor, some of it strenuous, involved in making that book appear. Every morning, library staff fan out through the stacks armed with a list of requests from other libraries, pulling books, audiobooks, CDs, and DVDs from the shelves. These go into big plastic bins that are then (this is the hard part) hauled away by a man in a truck, after he's dropped off a bunch of other bins filled with the requests of Wayland patrons. It's not unusual for him to leave 8-9 bins at a time and take away just as many—and they can get really heavy. He drives to a warehouse where the bin contents are sorted by library, re-binned, and put back on the truck. And so it goes, all day, every day. When you consider that this summer we borrowed nearly 7,000 items and lent out nearly 11,000, you realize it's more than magic—it's plain hard work.

EVENING BOOK GROUP:
The Reluctant Fundamentalist

Changez is living an immigrant's dream of America, with a prestigious job and a beautiful girlfriend whose connections promise him entry into Manhattan society at the same exalted level once occupied by his own family back in Lahore. But in the wake of September 11, Changez finds his position in his adopted city suddenly overturned, and his budding relationship with Erica eclipsed by the reawakened ghosts of her past. And Changez's own identity is in seismic shift as well, unearthing allegiances more fundamental than money, power, and maybe even love.

Join us in discussing this provocative novel by Mohsin Hamid on Wednesday, January 6 at 7:30pm in the Raytheon Room.

Daytime Book Group

The noontime group will meet next on Friday, January 8, and will be reading Those Who Save Us by Jenna Blum. Ms. Blum has just published a new book and will be at our library to talk about her books on the evening of Monday, February 22. For more information, visit waylandlibrary.org or call 508-358-2311.

Poetry Workshop

The next meetings of the Wayland Poetry workshop will be on Wednesdays, January 6, and 20 from 12 at 2 p.m.

Shlimovich Photos

Vladimir Shlimovich's exhibit, "Enchanting Still Life," will be in the Raytheon Room during January. It includes color photos inspired by the Flemish still life style of 17th-century painters such as Pieter Claesz. A native of Moscow, Russia, Mr. Shlimovich has lived in Wayland since 1997. Although he has been a software professional all his adult life, Vladimir is passionately interested in classical art and history, opera music, photography, and world travel. This exhibition offers his view of the world's beauty from several angles. Please join him for an artist's reception from 3-4 p.m. on Sunday, January 3.

Beginning Beading Workshop
Saturday, February 6
1:00 PM - 4:00 PM

Experienced beader, Norma Radoff returns to the library to give a third workshop for beginners on working with semi-precious stones. All materials will be provided, but if you have your own beads, please DO bring them. The class is limited to ten adults. Register at www.waylandlibrary.org or by calling the library at 508-358-2311.

Foreign Film Series
"AMELIE"

Amélie is a young woman who had a decidedly unusual childhood; misdiagnosed with an unusual heart condition, Amélie didn't attend school with other children, but spent most of her time in her room, where she developed a keen imagination and an active fantasy life. Despite all this, Amélie has grown into a healthy and beautiful young woman who works in a cafe and has a whimsical, romantic nature. She decides to step into the lives of others around her to help them out.

Wednesday, January 13
6:30 PM - 9:00 PM

NEEDED:
ESOL TUTORS

The Library is looking for volunteers willing to tutor students two hours a week in its English for Speakers of Other Languages program. We always have a waiting list of learners who need our help. No teaching experience or foreign language ability is required. Training classes for new ESOL tutors are scheduled for five Wednesday mornings starting February 24. If you are interested in participating or have questions, please contact Ginny Steel, ESOL Program Director at 508-358-7517 or at virginia@thesteels.com.

House Architecture in New England

The architectural firm of Albert, Righter & Tittman will present a program based on their newly published book, New Classic American Houses: The Architecture of Albert, Righter & Tittman. The firm has earned a reputation for building on historical precedent in surprising and inventive ways.

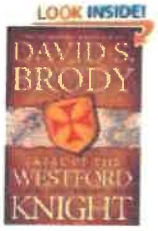
AUTHOR CHRIS DEVANY

Please join us Monday, February 8, from 7 to 9 p.m. as Wayland author Chris DeVany talks about his book, "90 Days to a High-Performance Team," recently published by McGraw Hill. DeVany is the founder and president of Pinnacle Performance Improvement Worldwide, a management consulting firm which focuses on management and organizational development.

AUTHOR JENNA BLUM

Jenna Blum, author of Those Who Save Us, will be at the library to talk about her books on the evening of Monday, February 22 at 7:30. Blum's newest novel, The Stormchasers, will soon be published by Penguin. She is currently teaching novel workshops at Grub Street Writers in Boston.

AUTHOR DAVID BRODY



Local author David S. Brody will be at the library to talk about his newest novel, Cabal of the Westford Knight on the evening of Thursday, February 25, at 7:30. Reminiscent of the DaVinci Code, the book is a suspense novel inspired by the legend of the Westford Knight. The legend recounts how Scottish explorers secretly visited Westford, Massachusetts in 1398, where they carved an effigy in stone to commemorate the death of a fallen comrade, a carving that remains visible today. But who were these explorers, and why had they come? The life of the story's modern-day protagonist depends on finding the answers.

JERROLD MITCHELL ON INVESTING

On Thursday, Feb. 4 at 7:30 p.m., Jerrold Mitchell, former chief investment officer of the Massachusetts Pension Reserves Investment Management Board (PRIM), will explain the strategies that "thought leaders" in institutional investing employ and whether or not individuals can copy those strategies to improve their own portfolios. He will talk about the best ways to avoid disappointment when investing. Over the past 40 years, Mitchell has managed billions of dollars for both public entities and private institutions. For 26 years he was a partner at Wellington Management Company. He is currently the chair of the Investment Committee of PRIM and a partner at Saltonstall and Company. Our sixth Great Presenters program!

Lifelong Learning

LEARN ABOUT HYPNOSIS

Our Great Presenter Series continues on Thursday, February 18 at 7:30 p.m. when Virginia Slep will present an "Introduction to Hypnosis." In recent years, hypnosis has gained increasing respect from the medical community and health plans for its effectiveness. She will explain what hypnosis is and how it works and will conclude with a 20 minute demonstration session. Slep has a private practice in Clinical Hypnotherapy. She works closely with many doctors and hospitals in Boston and Metrowest and has offered hypnosis programs at Framingham State, Regis College, and Middlesex Community College.

Raytheon Room Exhibit

In February Paul Dale will exhibit a group of photographs entitled "Light at the Lake: The Wayland Town Beach at Its Finest." It will include photos from all seasons accompanied by quotations of poetry and prose. The exhibit will reinforce your appreciation for the lake as a special place – a gem in the suburban landscape.

Foyer Exhibit

Michael Milburn will display his watercolor paintings in the Foyer for the month of February. Complementing his watercolor painting, a central aspect of his calligraphy study has been haiku, a Japanese poetic form in three short lines. He built a Japanese-style garden, using bamboo, plum and cherry trees, and wisteria to create a tranquil place of refuge, where he enjoys painting.

"OSAMA" Foreign Film Series

February 23
7:00 PM - 9:00 PM

This powerful and remarkable drama chronicles the true story of a young girl in Taliban-ruled Afghanistan who must disguise herself as a boy to save her family from starvation. The first feature film made in Afghanistan in the post-Taliban era.

BOOK GROUPS

Our evening group will meet on Wednesday, February 3, at 7:30 p.m. and will be discussing Lolita by Vladimir Nabokov.

The daytime group will meet next on Friday, February 12, at 12 noon and will be reading March by Geraldine Brooks.

All are welcome to both of our book groups.

WEATHERIZING YOUR HOME

On Monday, March 8, from 7-9 p.m., the Library and Wayland's Energy Initiatives Advisory Committee are co-sponsoring a program by the Massachusetts Municipal Association on "Weatherizing Your Home for Ultimate Savings" in the library's Raytheon Room. The workshop is being supported also by Energy Unlimited, a local business providing energy conservation products, wood stoves and fireplaces, which will raffle off a product at the workshop. The program will stress the importance of reducing heat usage by providing do-it-yourself sealing techniques, tips on hiring a contractor for in-depth alterations, resources for home audits, resources for financing alterations, and free educational materials for attendees. Refreshments will be provided.

CLASSICAL STUDIES SERIES with Frank Smith

Frank Smith will be back this year with a new Classical Studies Series entitled "Saga of the Early Roman Empire." This five-part series will start on Thursday, February 25, at 1 p.m.

THE IMPRESSIONISTS

BECOMING A TUTOR OF ENGLISH

Have you ever thought about tutoring someone in English? We always have a waiting list of learners who need help. Program director Ginny Steel is currently enrolling prospective tutors for the five-session course that starts on February 24. The class will meet at the Wayland Library on five consecutive Wednesday mornings, from 9:30 – 12:30. No prior knowledge of a foreign language is needed, just an openness to other cultures and the desire to share your knowledge of English. The training is free, although it is necessary to purchase a textbook for about $20. Volunteers will work one-on-one with adults who want to improve their abilities to speak and write English. For more information or to enroll in the tutor-training course, you can phone Ginny Steel at 508-358-7517 or email her at virginia@thesteels.com.

PORTRAITS OF IMPRESSIONIST ARTISTS
Renoir, Degas, and Cassatt

Join Judy Schurgin, a longtime lecturer at the Wayland Public Library, to view and discuss the many works of these three influential Impressionist artists. Step into the world of color and gaiety with this series devoted to three late nineteenth century Impressionist artists who painted in France. Auguste Renoir produced gorgeous shimmering light filled paintings of parks, bathing establishments, dance halls, dancers, women and young children. Edgar Degas captured the spirit of modern life by creating scenes of practicing ballet dancers, people sitting in cafes, horses racing, musicians performing, women at their toilettes, and laundresses washing clothes. Mary Cassatt, the first American female artist to exhibit with the French Impressionists, depicted women in a variety of roles, including caring for children, attending the opera, drinking tea, writing letters and communing with nature. All three artists were very diverse and worked in a variety of media.

March 8: Auguste Renoir
March 15: Edgar Degas
March 22: Mary Cassatt
1-2:30 p.m.

Saga of the Early Roman Empire with Frank Smith

Frank Smith will continue this five week course on the rise of the Roman Empire from the Age of Augustus to Marcus Aurelius. We shall examine the cultural changes which occurred during this era through literature, art, and architecture. Selections from the writings of Martial, Petronius, Seneca, Suetonius, and Juvenal will provide a window onto this fascinating period of history. We shall view examples of artworks which graced the walls of imperial palaces and luxurious villas and see examples of the impressive religious and secular architecture of the age.

Mr. Smith urges you to read the novel Pompeii by Robert Harris, an excellent introduction to our discussions, as it is an interesting study of the lives of the Pompeiians during the reign of the Emperor Titus before the eruption of Mount Vesuvius in 79 A.D.

Thursdays, March 4, 11, 18 and 25 from 1-3 p.m.

Book Groups

The noontime group will meet next on Friday, March 12, and will be reading Mrs. Dalloway by Virginia Woolf. For more information, visit waylandlibrary.org or call

The evening book group will discuss Serena by Ron Rash. Penned by an award-winning writer, this Gothic tale of greed, corruption, and revenge is set against the backdrop of the 1930s wilderness and America's burgeoning environmental movement. Rash's masterful balance of violence and beauty yields a riveting novel that, at its core, tells of love both honored and betrayed. Join us for the discussion on Wednesday, March 3, at 7:30 p.m. Copies available at the Circulation Desk.

Girl Scout Exhibit

This month's display focuses on the World Association of Girl Guides & Girl Scouts (WAGGGS), the international organization with which Girl Scouting in the U.S.A. is affiliated. The display explores the 4 World Centers of WAGGGS located in England, India, Mexico, and Switzerland and features patches, pins, dolls, postcards and other items from the 4 World Centers. Also displayed are photos, patches & pins from Sangam in India courtesy of Wayland resident Kim Berman, WHS '02, spent some time in India at the World Center there and got photos, a pin and patches from her trip. Although WAGGGS was formed in 1928 several member countries are celebrating their 100th yearJ! Items are on loan from the Girl Scout Museum at Cedar Hill and from Aida Gennis.

Book Making Workshop

Registration is now open for our Beginning Book Making workshop with artist Sue Bleiweiss that will be held on Saturday, March 27 at 1 p.m. Sue will teach participants how to make a basic book using a long stitch binding technique. This will create a beautiful hardcover book filled with blank pages that can be used for journaling, writing, or drawing. Space is limited and preference will be given to Wayland residents. Go to the events calendar at waylandlibrary.org to register for the workshop and to find out more about Sue.

GENEALOGY PROGRAM

On Saturday, March 20, the library will sponsor an all-day, two-part genealogical research program in the Raytheon Room, conducted by the New England Historical Genealogy Society. Part I will be "How to Get Started in Genealogy" and Part II will be "Best Practices for Online Genealogy" These programs are supported by donations in memory of the late Sally Dewey. Please register online through our event calendar at waylandlibrary.org.

Great Decisions Program

Are you interested in world politics? Do you enjoy discussing current events with a group of people? Participate in the 2010 Great Decisions Program, which will include eight sessions on Friday mornings from 9:15–11:30 a.m. beginning in March. Topics will include Special Envoys, Kenya and R2P, Global Crime, U.S.-China Security Relations, Global Financial Crisis, Russia and Its Neighbors, The Persian Gulf, and Peacebuilding and Conflict Resolution. On March 19, the topic will be Special Envoys. Special envoys can help bring attention and diplomatic muscle to resolve conflicts and global challenges but they also bring with them their own "special" problems. Will the Obama administration's reliance on special envoys increase the ability of the U.S. to deal with major international issues or complicate our diplomatic options?

FROM IMHOTEP TO IRAQ: MEDICAL ADVANCES THROUGH WAR

On March 4, Ronald Rosenthal, M.D., will present our March "Great Presenters" program: From Imhotep to Iraq: Medical Advances Through War. From the time of the earliest known physicians in ancient Egypt up until the present, many medical advances have come through military experiences. Dr. Rosenthal will cover this history and how these advances have been integrated into civilian care, projecting what is coming in the future. Ron is a retired orthopedic surgeon. He served as an Army surgeon in Viet Nam and has held faculty appointments at Washington University, Vanderbilt University, and Albert Einstein College of Medicine.

FINDING THE STORIES IN HISTORY

On Thursday, March 18, at 7:30 p.m., author Jacqueline Greene will talk about how historical research fuels her books. Ms. Greene is the author of the new "American Girl" series about a young Jewish immigrant named Rebecca Rubin. The six-book series is set in 1914 New York City when immigrants flooded into America is turned into a character's story. Co-sponsored with the Wayland Historical Society. This program is suitable for adults or older teens; Ms. Greene will be at the library for a children's program on the Rebecca Rubin series and doll on April 22.

WAYLAND LIBRARY CELEBRATION PARTY

The Board of Library Trustees invites Wayland residents to an Open House celebrating the re-opening of the library on Sunday, September 12, 2-5 p.m. after people are back from summer vacations. This will NOT be a quiet day at the library. We'll have lively, swinging gypsy jazz music with Sinti Rhythm, a balloon artist, face painting, and refreshments. Please join us in celebrating the restoration of our library to the community.

ARTISTS OF PLACE WITH JUDY SCHURGIN

On Fridays, September 24, October 1, and October 15, 1-2:30 p.m. Judy Schurgin will present an art history series entitled "Artists of Place." Throughout many decades landscapes by artists, including Claude Monet, Winslow Homer, and Georgia O'Keeffe, have been inspired by particular places located near their homes. The series will focus on the lives and works of these innovative and influential artists. View landscapes of their favorite places, including Giverny, Prout's Neck, and Abiquiu. We will start learning about Monet on September 24. There is a sign-up sheet on the adult circulation desk.

GREAT PRESENTERS SERIES

This year we have once more organized a series of programs by local experts. The series will start on the evening of Tuesday, October 5, at 7:30 p.m. Wayland resident Bill Haney will present a program entitled "Roll 'Em: Making Movies that Make a Difference." Bill, a writer, producer and director, will give us a behind-the-camera glimpse at what it takes to bring an idea to life on the big screen. He will screen one of his recently produced films and will lead a discussion about how he turned to filmmaking, how he chooses and researches his subjects, and the processes necessary for creating a finished documentary.

LIBRARY EVENING BOOK GROUP RETURNS

Monday, October 4 is the first date for this year's evening book group. The title up for discussion is Go With Me by Castle Freeman, Jr. The Vermont hill country is the stark, vivid setting for this gripping and entertaining story of bold determination. As the local villain makes life hell for a young woman from parts elsewhere, she resolves to fight back, aided by a pair of unlikely allies – a crafty old-timer, and a powerful but naïve youth. Backed by a Greek chorus of locals, they set off on a dangerous quest to confront her tormentor. The book group will meet on the first Monday of each month in the Raytheon Room at 7:30 p.m. All books can be obtained through the Minuteman Library Network and most are available in paperback if patrons want to buy their own copies.

DID YOU MISS THE LIBRARY?

There are notebooks both upstairs and downstairs in which library users can write their thoughts on missing local library services. If you treasure your local library and value local library services, feel free to contribute your thoughts to the notebook.

Poetry Workshop

The next meetings of the Wayland Poetry workshop will be on Wednesdays, September 15 and 29 at 2:00 p.m.

WORKSHOPS FOR ARTISTS

Space is limited and preference will be given to Wayland residents. Call the library at 508-358-2311 or go to the events calendar at waylandlibrary.org to register for the workshops below.

Book Making
Saturday, September 18 1-4 p.m.

Sue Bleiweiss will teach participants how to make a basic book using a long stitch binding technique. This will create a beautiful hardcover book filled with blank pages that can be used for journaling, writing, or drawing.

Printmaking
Saturday, September 25 2-4:30 p.m.

This workshop will consist of instruction on basic printmaking techniques including gelitin printmaking, mono printing, collage and simple photo transfers. Students should bring simple photographs that we will photocopy to use in our art. The workshop will be user friendly and students will walk away with skill and knowledge they can put into practice in their own artmaking lives. The end product will be a set of 5 cards with envelopes, but their knowledge will have grown ten fold in the printmaking field!

Beginning Drawing
Saturday, October 16 2-4 p.m.

This workshop is for those people who have little experience with drawing and have always believed that they had zero talent. In other words, if you think you can't draw, this workshop is for you. Margret Krakauer uses a number of techniques to stimulate your focus and creativity and will have a short bibliography for you to take home for further art exploration. The two hour class will investigate seeing things in a new way and finding ways to put these images on paper. After some discussion and using drawing paper and graphite pencils, participants will do a few exercises, then, create some drawings. You do not have to bring anything but an open mind and the ability to concentrate for two hours.

Travel Photography with Barbara Hakim
Tuesday, October 26 7-8:30

A fun and informative evening for those interested in improving their photo abilities. Enhance your photography by learning more about composition, lighting, color and editing. Whether you are taking photos of people, places or things, having some basic tips will enhance your final product. Bring your camera! Barbara has been a professional photographer for 29 years. Her travels have taken her to most of the 50 states, 10 countries in Western Europe, Africa and most recently, Haiti.

BOOK DONATIONS

Due to our construction project, the Friends have not been able to collect books for their semi-annual fall book and bake sale during the last few months. Now they need to catch up! If you have books that you are willing to donate, please drop them off in the lower level of the library any time the library is open.

SVNP EXHIBIT

The Sudbury Valley Nature Photographers will exhibit their photos in the Raytheon Room during September. This year's annual fall exhibit, "A Different Point of View," features the work of 21 local photographers, with an emphasis on photographs which involve uncommon approaches to photographing commonly-photographed nature subjects. There will be an artists' reception at the library on Sunday, September 19, 2:30-4:30 with "gallery talks" by some of the exhibiting photographers, beginning at 3:15.

PICK UP YOUR RESERVES IN WAYLAND

Reminder: If you have changed the pick-up location for your reserved items to a neighboring library, you will want to change it back to the Wayland Library. You can do this yourself online through you library account or you can call the library with your library card number, and we will do it for you.

NEW LIBRARY HOURS

Due to budget reductions in FY11, we are now closing at 6 p.m. on Thursdays and 5 p.m. on Fridays. As usual, our weekend hours in the summer are 10-1 on Saturdays and closed on Sundays. We will be closed over Labor Day weekend, and we will resume our regular weekend hours (Saturday 10-5 and Sunday 2-5) after Labor Day. Information about our hours is posted at waylandlibrary.org.

ESOL Tutors Needed

The Wayland Library has sponsored an ESOL Program for 18 years that has trained over 200 tutors. We have a waiting list of learners who need help, but currently lack a corresponding number of volunteers willing to tutor them a couple of hours a week. Training classes for new tutors have been scheduled at the library on five Wednesday evenings starting September 29, 6-9 p.m.. No teaching experience or foreign language ability is required in order to be a tutor. We will train you, painlessly, even enjoyably, to offer this service to someone who really needs help. You will work one-on-one with adults who desire to improve their abilities in spoken and written English. For more information, please call Ginny Steel at 508-358-7517.

Great Decisions Program

10/1, 10/15, 11/19 and beyond 9:15-11:30 a.m.

Are you interested in world politics? Do you enjoy discussing current events with a group of people? The 2010 Great Decisions program will starts up this fall. Topics will include Envoys, Kenya & R2P, Global Crime, U.S. – China Security Relations, Russia, the Persian Gulf, and Peacebuilding. On October 1, the topic will be Russia and its neighbors. Russia's policy of maintaining a sphere of influence in former Soviet satellites has been challenged in recent years by movements against pro-Russia regimes. Russia has pushed back by cutting Ukraine's natural gas supply and intervening in Georgia's campaign in South Ossetia. Will Russia regain its traditional leadership role in the region?

AUTHOR ERIC JAY DOLIN

On Tuesday, October 19, at 7:30 p.m. author Eric Jay Dolin (author of Leviathan) returns to Wayland to talk about his newest book, Fur, Fortune, and Empire. In the book he shows how the fur trade, responding to the demands of "Old World" fashion, sparked controversy, fostered economic competition, and fueled wars among the European powers, as North America became a battleground for colonization and imperial aspirations. 2010 Summer Reading Club

Have you been keeping track of your reading all summer? Make sure to bring in your reading log (or online certificate of completion) between Monday August 23rd and September 3, 2010 to receive a seeded bookmark! Plant the seeds and see what grows green! We're also giving away reusable GoGreen bags for you to bring home your library materials!

Go to www.waylandlibrary.org to sign up and log books online and to read and write reviews of books!

MRLS BLC "Go green at your library" is sponsored by the Friends of the Wayland Public Library, the Massachusetts Regional Library Systems, the Boston Bruins, and the Massachusetts Board of Library Commissioners.

Welcome Back!

The library was flooded this spring, and it has been closed for several months for reconstruction. We are very grateful to our neighboring libraries who have looked after Wayland residents so well while the library has been closed. We look forward to welcoming our library patrons back to their local library and re-introducing them to the joys and convenience of local library service.

LIBRARY CELEBRATION PARTY

The Board of Library Trustees invites Wayland residents to an Open House celebrating the re-opening of the library on Sunday, September 12, from 2-5 p.m. We'll have lively, swinging music with the Sinti Rhythm Band, a balloon artist, face painting, and refreshments. Please join us in celebrating the restoration of our library to the community.

The Youth Services room has a new layout! Please take a map and ask if you need any help!

PROTECTING & EMPOWERING KIDS IN TODAY'S ONLINE WORLD

Today's kids and teens are growing up in a world far different from the one in which their parents grew up. With the Internet, gaming systems, MP3 players, and cell phones, they're always connected to something digital. And because it's all coming at us so fast, it's hard to stay on top of the technology and help our kids make good decisions in the virtual world. On Tuesday, October 12, at 7:30 p.m. in the library's Raytheon Room, Dr. Gwenn Schurgin O'Keeffe, leading medical authority on Internet safety and child health issues and author of the newly released book, CyberSafe, will provide insight into the digital world our kids immerse themselves in and how we can effectively parent them in that world and deal with any problems that may arise. CyberSafe will be available for purchase after the event and for author signing.

AUTHOR ERIC JAY DOLIN

On Tuesday, October 19, at 7:30 p.m. author Eric Jay Dolin (author of Leviathan) returns to Wayland to talk about his newest book, Fur, Fortune, and Empire. Are you interested in world politics? Do you enjoy discussing current events with a group of people? The 2010 Great Decisions program will starts up this fall. Topics will include Envoys, Kenya & R2P, Global Crime, U.S. – China Security Relations, Russia, the Persian Gulf, and Peacebuilding.

Upcoming Topics:
October 1: Russia and Its Neighbors
October 15: The Persian Gulf

All discussions take place at 9:15 a.m. in the Raytheon Room.

Library Mugs

The Friends of the Library are offering very handsome "Wayland Library Mugs" for sale as a fundraiser. Each mug features a wonderful cast image of our historic library building. Come by the main circulation desk to see the mugs displayed. The Friends are selling them at the Wayland Depot and at the circulation desk for $15.

GREAT PRESENTERS SERIES

This year we have once more organized a series of programs by local experts, beginning Tuesday, October 5, at 7:30 p.m. Wayland resident Bill Haney will present a program entitled "Roll 'Em: Making Movies that Make a Difference." A writer, producer and director, Bill will give us a behind-the-camera glimpse at what it takes to bring an idea to life on the big screen. He will show one of his recently produced films and lead a discussion about how he turned to filmmaking, how he chooses and researches his subjects, and the processes necessary for creating a finished documentary.

DON GIOVANNI with PHIL RADOFF

November 3 and 10
7:30 p.m.

Opera buff Phil Radoff will present a two-part lecture and presentation of excerpts from Mozart's two-act operatic masterpiece, "Don Giovanni," considered by many to be the greatest opera ever written. The first evening will feature Act 1 and the second evening Act 2. These presentations will be a shortened version of a course that Phil has offered at Brandeis's Osher Lifelong Learning Institute for the past several years.

Noontime Book Group to Resume

The long-running Wayland Public Library book group will resume its monthly meetings on Friday, October 8, at noon with a discussion of Mr. Sammler's Planet by Saul Bellow. New members are always welcome. For more information on the book group, contact Assistant Director Kathy Powers at 508-358-2311.

NEW ESOL AND CHINESE MATERIALS

One of S.R. Ranganathan's Five Laws of Library Science (with which you're undoubtedly familiar) states, "The library is a growing organism." Even while we were closed, we added lots of new ESOL book-and-CD combinations, idiom and TOEFL books, and many titles on grammar, conversation, and pronunciation. DVDs, too!

We also significantly expanded our Chinese collection, with cookbooks, fiction, essays, and books on health and other topics. Plus lots of new DVDs (a very popular item), with the newest ones having the highest call numbers, at the end of the collection. Come take a look!

Poetry Workshop

The next meetings of the Wayland Poetry workshop will be on Wednesdays, October 13 and 27 at 2:00 p.m.

SUGGESTIONS, ANYONE?

While our library was closed and you were going to other libraries, was there anything you particularly enjoyed about those libraries? Do you have suggestions to improve service at our library? We would like to hear what you think. Submit your ideas to one of our suggestion boxes. There are two boxes near the circulation desks at the library or you can submit suggestions by email to: suggestions@waylandlibrary.org.

John Grabill Photographs

In the Foyer Exhibit, John Grabill will be showing selections from a larger planned show, juxtaposing lovely nature shots with lovely nature shots despoiled by plastic bags. Grabill states, "Plastic bags are an astounding blight on land and in the sea and I've been saddened by the fact that I can rarely take a walk anywhere without seeing a bag tangled in a tree, amongst a field of flowers, or in a pond."

ADHD AND MARRIAGE

Do you feel disconnected from your spouse? Is your marriage marked by chronic nagging, anger and disappointment? Is one spouse so "consistently inconsistent" that he or she plays the role of "child" in the relationship? If so, then your marriage could be suffering from the impact of adult ADHD. On Tuesday, November 16, at 7:30 p.m., Melissa Orlov, marriage consultant and author of The ADHD Effect on Marriage, will discuss the surprising ways that adult ADHD affects relationships and what couples can do about it. She and her breakthrough work have been featured in the The New York Times, CNN, Today, AOL, CBS and others. Come hear her speak and ask your own questions.

DON GIOVANNI WITH PHIL RADOFF

On November 3 and 10, at 7:30 p.m. in the library's Raytheon Room, opera buff Phil Radoff will present a two-part lecture and presentation of excerpts from Mozart's two-act operatic masterpiece, "Don Giovanni," considered by many to be the greatest opera ever written. The Don Juan legend has made innumerable appearances in literature since the 17th century, but Mozart's treatment of it is probably the best known. The presentation will feature video excerpts of an early performance from the Salzburg Festival. The first evening will feature Act 1 and the second evening Act 2. These presentations will be a shortened version of a popular course that Phil has offered at Brandeis's Osher Lifelong Learning Institute for the past several years.

Poetry Group: Try It Out!

The Poetry Workshop welcomes you to visit to see whether you would like to join the fun. The purpose of the group is to share poetry written by members and to offer positive suggestions to improve their writing. The next meeting will be on Wednesday, November 17, from 2 to 4 p.m.

LOOK SHARP! EXPRESS DVDs!

Maybe our new, two-week loan period for DVDs is too much for you. You take them home, you figure you've got two whole weeks to watch them, and BAM! the time's up and the overdue meter is running. You need a deadline, strictures, pressure, even to relax. Which means you have issues that we, as librarians, are not really qualified to address. What we can offer, however, are Express DVDs. You can only take them out for a week, you can't renew them, if they're late we'll smack you with a big whopping fine. How's that for limits? Look for them on the rack just above (appropriately) the Express books. But don't look too long—they'll be gone.

Great Presenters Series

IS THERE SUCH A THING AS A "SAFE DRUG"?
Paul Schendel, Ph.D.
November 2 7:30 –9:00 p.m.

Dr. Schendel's presentation will describe the process of pharmaceutical drug development and testing, and explain why, despite our best efforts to the contrary, drugs are likely to continue to have unwanted side effects. Paul has spent 25 years doing pharmaceutical research and development, first as a scientific director at Genetics Institute and later as Vice President of Project Management for Wyeth Pharmaceutical Company. During this time, he was involved in the discovery, development, and licensing of several oncology, hematology, and orthopedic drugs.

BUDDHISM AND ITS WESTERN ATTRACTION
Rosie Rosenzweig
December 7 7:30-9:00 p.m.

As a Buddhist figure, the Dalai Lama has become a magnet for many Westerners. This talk will present the basic tenets of Buddhism as a philosophy and as a faith. A brief history of its founder will be included. Audience participation will contribute to a discussion of its popular image.

Rosie is Resident Scholar in Women's Studies at Brandeis University and the author of numerous articles on Buddhist and Kabbalistic topics. She was introduced to various Buddhist sages through her son, a onetime resident of Nepal who undertook a three-year Buddhist silent retreat. Rosenzweig wrote about receiving personal teachings from her son's gurus in A Jewish Mother in Shangri-la (Shambhala Publications). She has been ordained as a Jewish Meditation teacher by Chochmat Ha-Lev in Berkeley, CA.

BUDDHISM AND ITS WESTERN ATTRACTION

Rosie Rosenzweig
December 7 7:30-9:00 p.m.

As a Buddhist figure, the Dalai Lama has become a magnet for many Westerners. This talk will present the basic tenets of Buddhism as a philosophy and as a faith. A brief history of its founder will be included. Audience participation will contribute to a discussion of its popular image.
Rosie is Resident Scholar in Women's Studies at Brandeis University and the author of numerous articles on Buddhist and Kabbalistic topics.

Poetry Workshop

The Poetry Workshop will meet on Wednesday, December 8 from 2 to 4 p.m.

Electronic Resources

We subscribe to a wide variety of electronic resources that are available 24/7. Subjects include genealogy, language learning, health, literature and books, business & investing, biography, auto repair, home improvement, science, history, newspapers and many other resources to help with homework and research.

You can find these by going to waylandlibrary.org and clicking on Research Databases in our top navigation area.

Some of Our Favorites

Scratch a librarian and you'll find a library—not only the one we work in, but the one we've read in a lifetime of living with books. Here are some we've especially liked—and there are a lot more where these came from.

End-of-Year Giving

Thank you to all who continue to support the Wayland Public Library Endowment Fund. If you are planning any end-of-year giving, please consider making a contribution to the Endowment Fund.

WAYLAND READS ZEITOUN BY DAVE EGGERS

Our next community-wide reading selection is a stunning, award-winning work of journalism that tracks the fortunes of a Syrian contractor following Hurricane Katrina. He canoes the flooded streets of New Orleans to help his neighbors, then endures a Kafkaesque nightmare in the confusing aftermath of the storm. Pick up a copy at the library. We'll be running book discussions and other programs in the spring. Stay tuned!

KILL-A-WATT METER LOAN

NSTAR has donated a Kill-A-Watt Meter to the library to circulate to our patrons. The device simultaneously plugs into an electrical outlet and an appliance to measure how much power the appliance uses. You can find the meter on the consumer shelf in the library and check it out just like a book.
